

Model - we receive data at the end of each period that is the integral of an unknown curve within that period

